STATE SANITARY CHIEF REPORTS ON ANTI-CONTAMINATION PLANS

ABOUT THIS — AND — ABOUT THAT

By OLIVER GEDEIST

BUNK.—Last week a story told of a fund set up 80 years ago by two wealthy brothers, for the purchase of coal for needy families. But, the story said, there were not enough needy people unable to buy coal, and a court ordered the money turned over to a wealthy foundation. The funds had been entrusted to a hospital by the donors for aid to needy families. The city was Pittsburgh. There are plenty of families there now, as there have been through the years, unable to buy plenty of fuel. The action of the hospital and the court was a fraud upon the original donors and upon hundreds of needy families in the area.

HELPING.—There are persons who have an unselfish interest in helping others. Often those who need are not receptive to help. Not because of unkindness, but simply because of lack of thorough understanding. This is not necessarily financial help. It may be advice. It may be guidance. The sort of help that will do the most good may be contrary to the conceptions of those in need. But it is what is needed. There are generous souls in the world, happily. May they increase.

ADVICE.—But many persons decline advice because they fear there's a catch in it. Too often they are right. That is not to say, however, that good advice should be thrown out merely because it might have a catch in it. Advice should always be studied and analyzed. If found to be good, it should be acted upon. If there's a catch in it, throw it aside. Frequently out of poor advice come good results. Finding the good in anything is valuable. It's worth trying.

YEARLY EVENT.—Don't let the hot weather get you. It was the same way last summer. My! how hot it was! Yes, it was that way last year and it will be likewise next year and the year after. At the hottest, just remember that soon you will be bundling against the cold. My! how cold it will be! But it gives conversation. And a bit of sweat. But that's good for us. When winter winds blow we will be wishing for a bit of this hot weather of recent days.

UGLY MESS.—That's an ugly mess, but a Roosevelt is mixed up in it, and not much less could be expected. It means the entertainment of young Roosevelt and "girls" by Airplane Hughes. Seems like about everything a Roosevelt-the-Great family touched cost somebody some money; in the end, mostly the taxpayers, although the "touch" was put on private individuals—rich individuals, that is, because only a lot of money seemed to satisfy the Roosevelt clan. Chorus girls, $100 presents, champagne and hotel rooms and dinners—O well, he WAS elected four times. No wonder the clan felt entitled to whatever they wanted.

DRIFTING.—The world drifts steadily toward war. If we could get the truth about Russia and if Russia could get the truth about the United States, maybe the war could be headed off. The war probably will break out in southeastern Europe, but it will spread, and quickly, to all the world. The traitors in all countries are numerous, and strong—stronger than German "fifth columnists" ever were. And more deadly. But we are born to die, it is said, and maybe dying in war is all right. We must think so; we do so little about it. We're too busy.

LABOR RACKETEERS.—They're bad. They "skin" their meek followers. They mulch the public. They inflict heavy penalties upon business and the general public. They should be curbed and union labor given a chance to live on its merits. It HAS merits. It's merely in the hands of selfish, unscrupulous bosses. But remember this, if business leaders had been less selfish they would not have set the example that educated the labor leaders in their ruthlessness.

Efforts to clean up waterways near Chicago is being pushed by public authority, according to a statement early in the week by C. W. Klassen, chief state sanitary engineer.

Activities to achieve this purpose were halted by the war, Engineer Klassen said, but the movement is now being aggressively furthered on "all fronts" he said.

In the report of activities published in a Chicago newspaper Monday, it was stated that the Tinley Park-Joliet area was included in the work, the report noting "that Tinley Park is another typical small community which grew up while its sewage treatment facilities did not, is planning improvements," with the additional comment that within a few days several complaints were received about constant pollution of the Little Calumet river.

It is understood that the state sanitary program aims ultimately at the introduction of sewage disposal in villages throughout this area. Tinley Park's immediate plan for storm water drainage is a small part of the program, but considered a beginning which may cut costs later on when general planning for sewage control becomes necessary.

Except for the interruption to the program compelled by war, it is said that the program would have been completed before now. This would have brought greatly improved sanitary conditions, officials say, and it is likely that village officials before long will have to tackle this problem, which would require bond issues to provide funds for the purpose.

Kuse-Schrank

Miss May Kuse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kuse, Sr., of Frankfort, and Paul Schrank, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Schrank of Mokena, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at 2:30 in Immanuel Lutheran church, the Rev. A. W. Gode officiating at the double-ring ceremony.

Walter Schrank, brother of the groom, played the wedding music. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attired in a gown fashioned with a taffeta bodice, long fitted sleeves, and a long full skirt, quissette skirt styled with a train edged with tiny bows. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a tiara of orange blossoms and trimmed with lace. Her bouquet was of gladiolus and roses, and she wore a string of pearls.

Meloogene Schrank, niece of the groom, was the flower girl and wore a pink net gown. Kenneth Ohendorf, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

Miss Ira Kuse, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a gown of pink marquisette. Her head dress and arm bouquet were of blue carnations. Miss Irene Sauerbier, cousin of the bride, was the bridesmaid and wore a blue marquisette gown. Her head-dress and arm bouquet were of pink carnations.

The groom's attendants were Alfred Schrank and Herman Kuse. Ushers were Herbert Schrank and John Kuse, Jr.

Following the wedding a dinner was held at the home of the bride's parents for the immediate families. A three-tiered wedding cake centered the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Schrank will live in their new home in New Lenox.

Orland 4-H

The seventh meeting of the Orland boys 4-H club was held at the home of Norman Yunker Tuesday, July 29. Norman Bernard presided at the meeting. Sixteen members were present.

The main business was the discussion of the 4-H show and fair to be held in Tinley Park. All members have had their projects inspected by a veterinarian and are awaiting the show. Plans for a demonstration were discussed. The demonstration is a part of the club's contribution in putting over the show.

A talk was given by Reynold Reinsman on his 4-H project and Raymond Bernard spoke on bull management.

The next meeting will be at the home of Dave Amren August 19. After the meeting a fine lunch was served by Mrs. Yunker. —Raymond Bernard, club reporter.

MARLEY PASTOR RESIGNS; INITIATED UNUSUAL PROGRAM; TO BE TEACHER

By Virginia Sass

The Rev. Paul Garvin Saunders has resigned the pastorate of the Marley Community church in order to devote full time to the teaching profession. He is continuing his position as a teacher of English at the Lewis College of Science and Technology, Lockport, where he has been teaching the past year, and is attending the University of Chicago, where he plans to obtain his master's degree in English.

Mr. Saunders was born in 1917 in Mt. Vernon, N. Y. He received his A. B. degree from Denison University of Granville, Ohio, in 1940 and his B. D. degree from the University of Chicago divinity school in 1945 and in 1944 he was ordained into the ministry at the First Baptist church of Galesburg. He accepted a call from the Marley church in August, 1943, to become pastor.

Mr. Saunders founded the Marley Farm-Life program, believing it to be symbolic of real religion. This educational program, sponsored by the Marley church and the vocational agriculture department of the Joliet township high school, has had three very successful winter seasons. Its weekly classes and monthly forums have inspired people to greater learning and have interested many from surrounding communities.

Mr. Saunders was married in 1939 to the former Helen Inness of Galesburg. Their son Keith is six years old.

New Bell Manager Is Named for Area

Robert F. McQueen has been appointed manager of the Illinois Bell Telephone Company's Joliet area effective August 1, it was announced by O. F. Clark, district commercial manager. Mr. McQueen, who has been manager at Harvey, succeeds W. F. Wiedemann, who has held the position in Joliet since August, 1943.

Mr. McQueen will take over the managerial duties in Joliet and the neighboring communities of Elwood, Frankfort, Lemont, Lockport, Mokena, Mokena, New Lenox, Plainfield, Plainville, and Wilmington.

To Wed Next Month

Mr. and Mrs. George Kampe of Tinley Park announce the approaching marriage of their daughter Lucille to Arthur Hostert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Hostert of Mokena. The wedding will take place September 6.

Tinley Firemen Plan Water Fight

Tinley firemen are planning a water-fight carnival, scheduled for September 21.

A delegation representing the firemen's organization Monday evening asked Tinley Park board of trustees to permit the use of village water for the water fight, permission granted.

It was stated that 30 teams will participate in the affair, which will be held at Polk's lot, 175th street and 67th court.

Former Players Take On Mokena

Twenty-two former Mokena league ball players will team up against Mokena's Robins next Thursday night at the Mokena grounds, Wolf road, south of the tracks, in an "old-timers" game, although it was said that the former local players have not actually reached the age when they should be called "old timers." Usual game time.

FREAK ACCIDENT FORCES PARKED CAR INTO OWNER'S BUILDING

In a three-phase automobile accident last Thursday evening, the New Lenox building occupied by Hutchins Cleaners in New Lenox was damaged to the extent of $200.

The car of Howard Hutchins of New Lenox was driven into the wall of his building when his automobile was struck by a car allegedly driven by a Mary Jane Farr of Wisconsin. The Farr car was also rammed into the building.

According to reports, a car driven by Richard Purler hit the Farr car, causing the driver to lose control, then

Manhattan Slates Big Homecoming Program

Manhattan's homecoming gets underway this Saturday, according to a report from the Manhattan post, American Legion, sponsor of the annual two-day carnival.

Music is to be furnished by the Joliet American Legion Champs, and the post promises two days of carnival life, including a ball game each afternoon, an amateur show Saturday night, concluding with a dance Sunday night.

Frankfort Elevator Is Being Rebuilt

Frankfort Grain Elevator, destroyed by fire Tuesday morning, April 15, is now being rebuilt.

Construction started a short time ago and the new structure is well underway. The new elevator is to be larger than the one destroyed by fire. It is expected that the new structure will be ready for use within a short time.

Separated 13 Years, Brother, Sister Meet

Charles Johnson of Long Branch, N. J., and Mrs. Anton Benson of Mokena, brother and sister, met last week. Only one other meeting had taken place between the brother and sister in 30 years. That was 13 years ago.

Mr. Johnson lived in Mokena at one time, but went east. He had not been here since. Mrs. Benson went east to see her brother 13 years ago. Now, 13 years later, her brother repaid the visit. Now he has gone to North Hollywood, Calif., to see a brother. They have not met since Mr. Johnson left Mokena 30 years ago.

W. S. C. S. To Meet

Mrs. Ralph Stellwagon will be hostess to the W. S. C. S. of Mokena Methodist church, Thursday, August 14.

BARN DESTROYED; LOSS $4,500; HOME HIT; LIGHTS, POWER CUT

Aged Frankfort Township Man Dies

Fred Geuther, 87, a life-long Frankfort township resident, died last Sunday morning, August 3, at the home of his son Arthur Geuther, in the township. Mr. Geuther was born in the township and never moved away.

Survivors in addition to Arthur Geuther are another son, Clem Geuther, of Panhandle, Texas, a brother, Charles Geuther of Mokena, three grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in St. Peter's Evangelical and Reformed church. Interment was in Pleasant Hill cemetery.

Coming in upon the heels of one of the season's hottest spells up to that time, a freak electric and windstorm last Saturday morning left fires and wreckage in its wake.

One house was struck with no outward evidence of the lightning's effect, but inside plaster was knocked from the walls and ceilings of several rooms, lights and power cut, while a neighbor observed a large ball of fire roll from the roof of the building.

In another instance, lightning set fire to a barn, destroying the building and its contents, valued at about $4,500.

Several other fires of less destructive importance occurred, several communities report, but they were not considered important enough to report to the newspapers.

In one village, a large tree was felled by the storm, cutting off power and lights for a good part of the day.

Early Saturday afternoon reports told of much damage to crops, one field of oats being reported as probably lost because of being swept by the wind level with the ground. However, sunshine later in the day apparently restored the crop to almost normal erectness, and farmers report only slight loss from the strong wind which accompanied the storm.

The greatest damage was done when lightning struck the barn of the August H. Wille farm near Tinley Park.

The barn contained 30 tons of baled hay, the family reported, and this with barn was a total loss. Firemen responded from Tinley Park, Markham, Crawford, and Oak Forest. It was impossible to save the barn, but the family, grateful for the efforts of the responding firemen, state that only through their efforts were the home and other buildings saved. Tinley Park and Markham firemen handled the fire-fighting, while the others stood by ready to help.

Loss was roughly estimated at $4,500, while only $3,500 insurance covered the destroyed property.

In Frankfort, with many minor damages caused by the wind, as in other sections, a large tree was blown down, wrecking power lines. About half of the village was without power and lights until late in the day, when busy workmen reached the village to restore the lines and power.

Small damage was reported from Orland and New Lenox townships, but, like other communities, the damages were small and unreported generally.

In the Hugo Neithammer home in Mokena, lightning left the outside of the building undisturbed, but found its way into the rooms, knocking off plaster, breaking walls, and destroying light and power facilities for several hours. Total damages have not yet been assessed.

Heldt-Stege

Miss Mardell Heldt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Heldt, became the bride of Elmer Stege, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Stege, Sunday, July 27, at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon, in St. John's Lutheran church of Cooper's Grove. The Rev. Henry Meyer performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of white taffeta and net, and her fingertip veil was held in place with a coronet of white roses. Her bouquet was starlight roses tied with white satin ribbon. The only jewelry was a gold cross necklace.

Mrs. Audrey Siddehs was her sister's only attendant. Her gown was of light blue jersey and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses tied with blue satin ribbon. The groom's brother, Norbert, served as best man.

Mr. Schuricht was the organist and played several selections.

A wedding reception for 200 guests was held in the parlors of Zion Lutheran church at Matteson.

After a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Stege are at home in Tinley.

Methodists Omit Service

Only Sunday school will be held in Mokena Methodist church this week, the regular morning service being omitted because of the absence of the pastor.

4-H Exhibition Program Expanded; Big Crowds Expected

Plans for the 4-H clubs of South Cook county have been expanded, it was announced this week, with additions made to the program for entertainment.

It was also announced that increased prizes for winners of the various events, including cattle exhibitions and home work by the girls, have been assured.

The fair is scheduled by the 4-H groups for Tinley Park and will cover two days, Tuesday and Wednesday, August 26 and 27. The exhibition will be held in Saenger hall and grove. The general program was published two weeks ago. It is expected that the expanded program will be ready to publish next week.

Lists of entries have not yet been made public, but the South Cook boys and girls are reported as being busy with the program of readying for the fair.

Some of the additions to the program include a merry-go-round and a ferris wheel, and additional features are expected to be announced next week.

Managers of the fair report that the exhibition of livestock is expected to be the largest in the history of South Cook county 4-H clubs, and it is stated that the outlook is for the affair to assume the proportions of a county fair.

Activities are to continue through the days and evenings of the two days, with the big finale on Wednesday evening.

Admission rates have been made lower than usual, so that getting in will not be a burden to even a large family.

Printed programs will be available at the fair, it is stated.

Motive Behind Greek Revolt

ACCORDING to the diplomatic grapevine from Athens, the so-called Communist uprisings inside Greece were carefully timed—not by the Communists, but by the Tsaldaris-Maximos government—to coincide with the departure from the U. S. of former Gov. Dwight Griswold, Greek aid administrator for Athens.

The Greek government's motive is to convince Griswold that the Tsaldaris-Maximos regime is essential to the security of the country and must remain in power.

Actually, what happened was that the E.A.M., or so-called Communist group, was holding conferences with Prof. Alexander Svolos of Athens university just a few days previously with a view to a political compromise by which they could resume participation in Greek political affairs under U. S. protection, when, suddenly, about 4,000 of them were arrested.

U. S. diplomats are pretty well convinced that there can be no political stability in Greece and no success for the American aid program if the present reactionary Greek regime remains in power. Even patient Ambassador Lincoln MacVeagh is reported to have come to this conclusion. To counteract this, Tsaldaris is doing his best to convince Griswold that there would only be more chaos if the present Greek government resigned.

Notes of a Bystander

The Late Watch: Many of the women up at the Columbia university faculty section are reported soooooo fluttery over General Eisenhower's appointment. They're all getting perms, new fall outfits, etc. . . . Observation: In the papers a photo of Harry Truman's birthplace disclosed that it now is occupied by a loan firm!

The Keeley institute of Illinois (where drunks are dried up) explodes the cinematic legend that newspaper men are rumpus. Out of 12,012 palcoholics treated there (between 1930 and '46) only 95 were newspaper men. The others were architects, brokers, bankers. But topping the list for worst tipplers (bold 'er, Newt!) were farmers.

PAUL MALLON

1948 Race Is Like a Pretzel

THE political situation is shaping up like an untermuted pretzel. You can see the curves up to now plainly enough. But where the dough maze will wind up, nobody knows.

Dewey went out to make character in the West. From New York with 96 convention delegates, he went out to the six delegate states, not to gather party votes, as popularly supposed, but chiefly to gather a 10-gallon political disposition. Candidates often make the same trek for the same purpose at this stage.

If Dewey went after delegates, he should have come down to Washington to see the Republicans in both houses of congress. This is where the delegates are. Senator Martin has the 76 or so from Pennsylvania in an inside pocket. Senators Taft and Bricker could tell Dewey about Ohio, and probably also Indiana and Illinois, although it might not be anything Dewey wants to hear. Speaker Martin could issue Massachusetts and probably all New England like script. Harold Stassen could tell him about Minnesota and perhaps Iowa; Wherry about Nebraska; Baldwin about Connecticut, and so on.

Dewey could take a pencil and paper, come to Washington at much less railroad fare and ascertain he lacks a majority of delegates without favorite son support. He might win a few primaries next spring and show some strength (this is what he is figuring on, they say) in which case the boys might come up to his backroom at Albany.

So while Dewey is supposed to be making a runaway race out of it, no one will predict where he goes from here. Taft is going west himself, and will identify himself while there as the only prominent opponent of Dewey to date.

YANISHING AMERICANISMS
"Remember, we have to hold our customers!"

"One overcharged patron is a lost patron."

"Our job is to make the customer feel he got his money's worth."

Rationing is coming back, it is freely predicted, there being no other way that we can send to Europe the things required. Everything "POINTS," as it were, that way.

Congress Plays Good Samaritan

THE senate was about to convene for a political discussion of export controls. The Rev. Peter Marshall, chaplain, asked Divine Guidance and said:

"May freedom be seen not as the right to do as we please, but as the opportunity to please to do what is right. May it ever be understood that our liberty is under God and can be found nowhere else. Let us, as a nation, not be afraid of standing alone for the rights of men, since we were born that way, as the only nation on earth that came into being 'for the Glory of God and the advancement of the Christian faith'."

And in answer to an objection by Senator Taft over continuing export controls on fats and oils as "illogical," Sen. Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin said:

"There is such a thing as the higher logic of the mind and soul. Our responsibility is to keep our own economy healthy and at the same time attempt to perform the function of the Good Samaritan in helping to make other peoples adequate."

In debate over farm price supports, Sen. Milton Young of North Dakota said price of wheat in the Argentine without controls was between $5 and $6 per bushel. Arguing for continuing controls, Senator Young said American farmers would be tickled to sign a contract for five years at $1.50 a bushel rather than face the possibility of $5 wheat this year and probably 30-cent wheat in a couple of years.

Military Training Will Aid Youth

UNIVERSAL military training would instill in young men the two essentials of the soldier's life—discipline and endurance.

These two essentials come from training, and with that training comes a physical hardening that adds stamina. Universal military training would give to our young men those two first essentials, and, temporarily, the physical hardening. We may not, we hope we do not, have to fight another war, but war or no war, military training for all the young men of America will make for a better and more successful citizenship. It will give to that large percentage that needed training they have not had.

Phenothiazine Will Kill Nodular Worms

Common Insect of Hogs Present on Most Farms

You've heard so much about swine roundworms that you may think they are the only internal parasites that cause hog losses. If so, you're wrong. You're overlooking the nodular worm.

The USDA says the nodular worm is perhaps the most common worm parasite of swine, and that in some states, practically all hogs raised under ordinary conditions may be infected.

Research workers in animal parasitology are beginning to suspect that nodular worm injury to hogs is far greater than was heretofore believed. Nodular worm infections cause considerable losses to the meat industry because the intestines studded with nodules, resulting from nodular worm injury, are weak and tear easily, and this destroys their value for use as casings. These losses, of course, are passed along to the hog raiser in the form of lower prices.

Hogs entertain four species of nodular worms. The nodular worm gets to be only about a half inch long, hence is not as readily seen as the roundworm, which gets to be as thick as a lead pencil and more than a foot long. Hog raisers seeing roundworms may blame them for trouble caused by the smaller, harder-to-see nodular worms.

Phenothiazine is the only effective remedy for removing nodular worms. It destroys more than 90 per cent of them. Phenothiazine is easily given in feed—in fact, that is the safest way for a hog raiser to administer it.

Anaplasmosis Gains Foothold on Range

Anaplasmosis is a febrile, infectious disease, transmitted from sick or carrier cattle or by ticks, horseflies and other biting insects. Young animals are seldom affected.

The treatment is still in the experimental stage and is largely a veterinary problem. Animals afflicted with the malady should be kept in the shade, given plenty of clean water, a little green feed, and protected against flies. Intravenous injection of mercurochrome has been used with success as well as a modified sodium-cacodylate treatment.

Remedy for Black Rot Disease Among Grapes

Use of bordeaux mixture 4-4-100 plus one pound of rosin fish oil soap per 100 gallons of spray mixture is recommended for those vineyards where black rot and downy mildew have been serious. This spray is applied just before bloom, just after bloom and two weeks after bloom. If rainfall is above normal, it may be necessary to make a fourth application two weeks after the third treatment.

Remember —all the different brands you smoked during the wartime cigarette shortage? That's when so many people discovered—from experience—that Camels suit them best. Yes, experience is the best teacher. That's why...

More people are smoking CAMELS than ever before

Experience is the best teacher!

Pressure Saucepan
Saves Time and Fuel

IN A comparatively short time the pressure saucepan has won an assured place in farm kitchens, according to Laura Dailey, in an article in Capper's Farmer, one of the best known farm magazines.

It saves time and fuel. Many different foods may be prepared in a pressure saucepan. It is particularly good for those which need long cooking. "Pressure cooking," Miss

Dailey says, "preserves food value, color and flavor."

A few rules of operation are important:

- 1.—Never fill the pan more than two-thirds full.
 - 2.—Be sure that steam flows steadily from vent before you close it.
 - 3.—Wait until weight or pressure control jiggles or hisses or cooking indicator is at right position to your directions before you start counting time. Then reduce the heat and let cook for specified time.
 - 4.—Reduce the pressure as each recipe indicates.
 - 5.—After pressure is reduced, be certain to remove the weight, or lift the pressure control, before removing cover.
- Some farm women are doing a limited amount of canning in their pressure saucepans, Miss Dailey points out.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Spiess, with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Spiess and family of Chicago, motored to Kentland, Ind., last Sunday to visit their nephew, LaVerne Marti.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Geuther, Russell and Barbara and Carol Steele returned from a camping trip at the Michigan Dunes.

Carol Steele has returned to her home in Lutherville, Maryland, after spending her vacation as the guest of Barbara Geuther.

Mrs. M. Geuther and Barbara, Faye Ann and Helen Reuckert attended a Doll show at the Morrison hotel, Friday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John E. Horras of Mokena, a son, August 1, at Silver Cross hospital. Weight 7 pounds. Mrs. Horras is the former Corinne Marti.

Mr. and Mrs. Benscoter of Joliet were guests in the Hugh Deadmore home Sunday.

Iowa City was the first capital of Iowa. The capital was moved to Des Moines in 1857.

The first railroad in the state of Iowa was constructed in 1855.

Pasture Field Day
Is Set For Sept. 5

The latest machines and methods for improving pastures will be demonstrated September 5, when Will county serves as host to one of seven pasture improvement field days to be held in the state this year.

According to Wayne Churchill, Will county farm adviser, the field day will be held on the A. C. Geuther farm in Frankfort township on Route 45, September 5.

There will be demonstrations of soil testing and treatment, seedbed preparation, seeding problems, and soil conservation methods. Farmers will also have an opportunity to hear the latest information on pasture management, pasture weed control, and handling livestock on improved pastures.

The field days are being sponsored by the Illinois agricultural extension service in cooperation with the Will county Farm Bureau, farm machinery manufacturers and dealers, and other interested groups. Crops, soils, livestock, and farm management specialists from the college of agriculture at the University of Illinois will assist the demonstrations and discussions during the day.

FRANKFORT

By Mrs. Frank J. Kohlhaugen

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lambrecht, Kathryn and Vickie and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Warning, left Sunday morning for Athelstone, Wis., for a few weeks' vacation.

They will have as their guest next week, Miss Viola Lankenau, who is now visiting in Dearborn, Mich., with her brother Floyd and family who will join them shortly. Paul will join them later also. During Miss Viola's absence from home, Mrs. Lankenau is staying with the Henry Breiderts.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burmeister of Chicago were guests of the Elmer Triems last week end. Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kuhlmann of New Lenox, daughter of the Triems, joined them and enjoyed the day with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bennett, Sr., entertained at a birthday party at their home Sunday evening, August 3, honoring her mother, Mrs. Emma Geuther, on her 80th birthday. A potluck luncheon was served on the lawn to the following guests: Mrs. Bertha Neiland and her family, the Burnett Schrams, the Ralph Neilands, and the Joe Hartung families, the Henry Geuther family, the Clark Bennetts, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klepper and granddaughter Ceinwen, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Klepper, Mr. and Mrs. John Fink of Chicago Heights, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ewert of Chicago. The evening was spent informally.

Monday morning, August 4, Mrs. Albert Krusemark, Sr., received a message from New York City announcing the arrival of a new grandson. The baby is the first child born to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gerhold. Mrs.

Gerhold is the former Corinne Krusemark.

Friday night, August 1, the Speed Boys of Joliet played the Frankfort team at the Frankfort field, in one of the most exciting games yet played here. The score was 9-8 in favor of Frankfort, after the 11th inning.

Tuesday night, August 5, Lockport's St. Joe's will make their appearance here, and Friday night at 9 o'clock, August 8, a colored team from Harvey will meet the local boys.

Mrs. Blanche Mitchel last week visited several days with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Frye and family at Steger.

Janet Baech, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Art Baech, is back home from Silver Cross hospital, where she has been confined for the past seven weeks with a broken leg. She is getting along nicely, but will have to remain in bed for a while. She is still in a cast.

Mrs. May Scheer and Mrs. Blanche Mitchel left for Michigan to spend several weeks with their sister, Estelle Popolorum, at Berrian Springs. Miss Estelle is 80 years' old and needs constant care. Mrs. Anderson, another sister from Chicago, also assists in caring for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tewes and sons attended a birthday party of her sister, Mrs. Lydia Bettenhausen, in Joliet last Sunday. The party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Siemsen, daughter of the celebrant. Dinner was served on the lawn at quartette tables with a large birthday cake. Those attending were her children, the James Fleming family, Mr. and Mrs. Siemsen, and Mr. and Mrs. Clark, also the sisters and brothers and their families of Mrs. Bettenhausen and her mother, Mrs. Krapf. Pictures were taken of the various groups and individuals, which will serve as a pleasant memory.

Visitors in the John Staff home Wednesday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnson and her sister, Mrs. Pierson and daughter and family of Roseland. Edgar Lund of Chicago spent Sunday with the Staffs.

The small daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Robert Klepper is spending the summer with her grandparents, the Fred Kleppers.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koerner left Sunday evening for Los Angeles, Cal., where they will spend a month with her sister, the Wilbur Meyers.

Mrs. Birley Bettenhausen of Chicago Heights and Mrs. Adella Lorenzen have been visiting at the home of the latter's daughter, Mrs. Stanley Warning and family. They also called on old friends the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Piepenbrink and family attended the annual gathering held in honor of the 80th anniversary of the former's father, Henry Piepenbrink, Sunday, July 27, which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Woodman. About 85 attended from Beecher, Crete, Monee, Chicago Heights, Matteson, Frankfort and Indiana.

Miss Marjorie Piepenbrink of Matteson is visiting with her cousins, Karen, Yvonne, and Jerry Piepenbrink, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schoen and children of Egan, S. D., are visiting the former's father and family in Lincoln Estates. They expect to stay a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Maurer and children of Tremont were guests of her sister and family, the Colemans, the fore part of the week.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Seeman, August 1, in Silver Cross hospital, Joliet.

David Marschka, grandson of the John Bixlers, underwent an appendectomy at St. James hospital, Chicago Heights, one day last week. He is doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bobzin of Oak Park visited relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. Anna Knater of Peotone, spent a few hours with Mrs. F. J. Kohlhaugen last Thursday. She also called on several other friends.

Mrs. Ida Meyers of Peotone spent Thursday with her mother, Mrs. Genens, and sister, Freda.

August 2, Mr. and Mrs. Russel Kohlhaugen and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Krapf of Monee entertained 26 of their Joliet friends at a potluck supper at the Hasenjaeger farm. After the business meeting and devotionals, a treasure hunt was enjoyed by all, after which ice cream was served by the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Kohlhaugen motored to Tinley Park Sunday evening to call on the Joe Andres and the P. L. Jochum family to see how their daughter, Sharon Mae, was getting along after the dreadful experience she had of being bitten by a rabid dog.

Friday night Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dempsey and the Don Peterson family, of Joliet, and Mr. and Mrs. George Geuther of Lockport came to spend the evening with the Harlan Eisenbrandt family. Later in the evening, Donald Carroll joined them, after which refreshments were enjoyed.

The Arthur Eisenbrandt family returned Saturday morning from a two weeks' motor trip to Canada and Minnesota, making Alexandria, Minn., their main stop. They found fishing good at Lake Darling. One of the catches was a northern pike 25 inches long, which really was something to crow about. Their trip gave them a lot of pleasure.

The children and their families of Mrs. Minnie and the late Fred Fink held a family reunion at the Vernon Fink home Sunday, August 3, afternoon and evening. A weenie roast was enjoyed. Ball and croquet were the afternoon's diversions. Those present were Mrs. Minnie Fink, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Fink and son, Chicago Heights, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Phillips of Chicago, the George Mills family of Lansing, Ed Krabbe family of Matteson, the Vernon and Melvin Fink families of Frankfort, and Hans Unland, numbering 25.

A group of young people went to Nowell park Sunday afternoon and evening to enjoy a picnic dinner. They were the Mesdames and Messrs Edwin Dralle, Earl Bettenhausen, Harold Ullrich, Harvey Rosendahl, Carl Weber, Alvin Wanner, and Carol Jean.

The Jolly Nine club met at the home of Violette Bettenhausen Thursday evening.

The Bettenhausen family reunion will be held August 17 at Inwood park, west of Joliet.

The Krapf family reunion is to be held at Highland Park.

The auxiliary unit of American Legion will meet at the village hall August 14.

If lamp and appliance cords in your home are badly worn and beyond repair, replace them before they cause trouble. Serious damage can result from exposed wires. They cause short circuits, waste electricity, blow fuses.

During the war, all of us had to get along with makeshift wiring of inferior quality.

Today there is no reason why every home shouldn't have wiring that's both safe and adequate.

You owe it to your family to check through your home for worn-out electric cords today. Replace every frayed cord with a new one of good quality. Then, lengthen the life of these wires by

Mrs. Robert Shepherd and Mrs. Walter Storm served a delicious picnic dinner to members, seven guests, and several children at the meeting of the missionary society in the Shepherd home last Thursday. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Darrell Shepherd, Mrs. Owen Storm, and Mrs. William Hanson. Other guests were Mrs. Charles Kelly and Mrs. Edward Henry, Mrs. LaVerne Kasper, and Mrs. Bruce Anderson. Fancy work for the fall sale was distributed and sewing of carpet rags filled the time. Several books were distributed for reading which will form a nucleus for a circulating library, among the members. In the absence of Mrs. Wray White, the business meeting was conducted by Elizabeth Anderson. Miss Myra Reed led the devotional program.

Mr. and Mrs. William Heatherwick and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rhode and daughter Bonny have returned from a two weeks' trip to Coolidge, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Welter, accompanied by the John Kessers of Lockport and Albert Uthe of Chicago, spent the week end at White Pines state park.

Mrs. Mary Jensen and Miss Alice Jensen have returned to their home in Rockford after a week's visit in the Charles Jensen home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Brewster of Joliet were week end guests of the Ray Myers family.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mobias of Oceanside, Cal., spent several days last week in the home of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob McGuire.

Ray Carlson spent the week end at Tower Hill Camp, Mich., with his family, who are vacationing there.

Mrs. Richard Smith, her son Richard, and daughter Margaret of Washington, D. C., Miss Frances Putnam of Chicago, Mrs. Adella Paddock of Lockport, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Finley and Robert of Gary, Ind., and Miss Alice Putnam of Chicago were supper guests of the Willard Rowleys Sunday evening.

Mrs. Finley, Sr., of McConelsville, Ohio, and Miss Virginia Russell of Evanston were also among the guests.

Mrs. Ira Anderson and her house guest, Mrs. A. C. Logan, spent Friday and Saturday with the Joe Vancils at Downers Grove.

Death of Francis Morse

Word has been received of the death of Francis William Morse, aged 86, at Portland, Ore., July 10. A former Homer resident, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Morse of here. He is survived by one daughter, Annette of Portland, Ore., three sons, the Rev. William Francis of Amity, Ore., George Walling Morse of Portland, Ore., and Edward Lawrence Morse of Bloomingdale, Ill., and several grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Mr. Morse spent several days visiting Homer friends about three years ago.

Miss Mildred Coleno arrived via plane last Sunday, from Cardiff, South Wales, U. K., and is spending several days with Mesdames Marian Johnson and William Hicks, who are the sisters of her fiancée, Frank Ricks of Arizona. Eugene Piggott and Alvin Welter went to Chicago last Friday to see the Cubs play ball.

The Homer Aces played a Maywood team Sunday, losing to the visitors.

Willard Rowley, Jr., who was recently awarded a four-year scholarship at the University of Illinois, in a competitive examination in agriculture, went to Urbana Monday to procure living quarters for the fall term.

Jane Vancil of Downers Grove spent Monday and Tuesday with her grandmother, Mrs. Ira Anderson, while her parents were on a business trip to Champaign.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Cave and son Bruce of Belmont called on Homer friends Wednesday.

Miss Shirley Burch, Reed Burch, Jr., and John Reed accompanied Miss Rita Lynn to her home in Gary, Ind., Sunday, following her week's visit with relatives here.

MUSEUM VISITED

Mrs. J. B. Rooth, assisted by Mrs. Harry Anderson and Mrs. Robert Ebeling, took her Sunday school class to the Chicago Historical Society museum Thursday, July 24.

They went by auto and Chicago's new street cars, which are fine to ride in. In the group were Jonnie Oglesby, Judy Anderson, Richard Manning, Arthur Creer, Wendell Doctor, Paul Ebeling, Dick Anderson, and Gerald Myrick.

Some of the interesting things they saw there were the Lincoln dioramas, the Paul Revere house, relics of the Chicago fire, and wagons and carriages of early days.

Gerald Myrick learned that his great-grandfather, Benjamin Briggs, was one of the owners of the first vehicle manufacturing shop in Chicago, started in 1832. —By one of the boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cooper and family of Elmhurst spent last Thursday at the home of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Creer.

Church services will be in charge of the Rev. Milton Heitzman at the usual time, and 8:30 Sunday, August 10, but on the following Sunday there will be no church or Sunday school, as Mr. Heitzman will be away on vacation.

Deviled Egg-Noodles Casserole Tasty Dish

"Folks will be asking for the recipe after they've tasted this deviled egg and noodle casserole," says Marjorie Griffin, Rural Home editor of Capper's Farmer, one of the leading farm magazines.

"You'll tell them there's no trick to making it," she writes in the magazine read by 1,300,000 farm families.

DEVELOPED EGGS AND NOODLES

2 c. uncooked noodles
6 hard-cooked eggs
2 tbsp. mayonnaise
1 tsp. vinegar
1/4 tsp. paprika
1/2 tsp. dry mustard
Salt and pepper
4 tbsp. butter
4 tbsp. flour
1 tsp. salt
2 c. milk
1 c. cheese cracker crumbs
2 tbsp. melted butter

Drop noodles into boiling salted water and cook until tender. Drain in strainer and rinse with cold water. Place in buttered casserole or six individual baking dishes. Cut eggs in half. Remove and mash yolks, mix in mayonnaise, vinegar, paprika, mustard, salt and pepper. Fill egg whites and place on top of noodles. To make white sauce, melt butter, blend in flour and salt. Add milk and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Pour sauce over eggs and noodles. Top with crumbs mixed with melted butter. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 20 minutes. Six servings.

In 1839 Isaac Babbitt discovered the anti friction alloy known as Babbitt metal. Congress voted him $25,000 for his invention.

Primary Filing Rules Changed

SPRINGFIELD, July 2—Dates for filing for public office have been changed under recently enacted and approved legislation, the secretary of state, under whose jurisdiction filings are made, has announced.

Under House Bill 376 the first day for filing petitions is 85 days prior to the primary and the last day for filing is 78 days (now 78 and 70 respectively). Last day for withdrawal under the new regulation is 73 days before the primary, thereby allowing five days—now three—for withdrawal after the final filing date.

The bill also provides that the state certifying board, in certifying to the various county clerk names of the candidates for the offices specified, must also certify the number of candidates for representative in the general assembly that are to be nominated as per the resolution of the senatorial committee as filed in the office of the secretary of state.

Last day for the senatorial committee to meet is 70 days prior to the primary and the last day the committee may file its resolution relative to the number of candidates to be nominated by their party is 68 days.

These changes in the law will be incorporated in the election calendar for 1948, now being compiled in the office of the secretary of state.

Decorative Glass Streamlines Modern Room

Glass blocks around a fireplace surmounted by a mirror add sparkle to large, modern living rooms.

"WHETHER you're planning to build or remodel, you'll be interested in the new ways glass can bring beauty into your home," says Betty Swan in an article in Capper's Farmer, a leading farm magazine.

"Glass blocks and decorative flat glass, now so popular, may be used to streamline any room," she declares.

"As windows, doors, partitions or partial screens they are practical as well as ornamental. They let in light from outdoors, or another room but cannot be seen through readily. They are easy to clean.

"Used as a semipartition or in archways, glass blocks give a modern touch and reflect light.

Uncle Sam Says

One of the fine old American customs is to begin a new year with a lot of resolutions. Some we keep. Others we make with the intention of breaking them to the delight of ourselves and friends. You're being a good American to resolve to do something or other from this day on until eternity. You're being a better, wiser American to make a solemn resolution to strengthen the future security of yourself and family.

Resolve to put some of your income regularly into U. S. Savings Bonds, which pay $4 for every $3 invested in 10 years.

The Friendly Circle Picnic, postponed last week, will be held August 17 at the Fred Francis farm.

Miss Eileen Klausling is spending a two weeks' vacation in Sparta, visiting with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Beck and daughter Carol of Chicago spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Darling.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wajchert and Mr. and Mrs. Len Anderson spent Sunday at Cedar Lake, Ind., where they enjoyed a picnic dinner and supper, and speed-boat riding.

The W. S. C. S. of the Methodist church and the Young Womans' group will sponsor a "breakfast in Hollywood" show August 28, 10 a. m., in the dining hall on the camp grounds. Those writing in "good neighbor" letters are asked to do so before August 20 and to send them to Mrs. Albert Schmuhl.

The Methodist church and Sunday school held their annual picnic Sunday at the Messenger forest preserve. Dinner was served at 1:30, and the afternoon was spent in playing games. Supper was served at 6 o'clock.

Robert Gillette and son Bobby spent a few days last week in northern Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. William Collatz and daughters Carol and Merry Lee, and Miss Betty Tarrant are expected home tomorrow from Harshaw, Wis., where they spent a week on Handcock Lake and Eagle River.

The final meeting of the 4-H outdoor cooking club was held July 28 at Hickory creek dam. Dinner was cooked over an open fire, after which the meeting was opened by the president, Ann Archibald. A demonstration on "buddy burners" was given by Miss Archibald and Miss Florence Cruise. Bernice Heisner gave a demonstration on the hunter-trapper fire.

Plans for the early fall month were discussed at the July meeting of the Trinity Evangelical Woman's league, Tuesday afternoon at the church. Mrs. Ann Krog presided over the business session. Pastor Leonard Reinke led in prayer and the discussion that followed. Following the custom of former years, the August meeting will be a potluck picnic luncheon at the Walter Reinhard home, with Mrs. Melda Reinhard and Mrs. Thora Rydberg as hostesses. Guests at Tuesday's meeting were Mrs. Sylvia Chesmore, Mrs. Jean Jacobsmeyer, Mrs. Selma Jensen, and Mrs. Duncan Stonehouse. Hostesses were Mrs. Leona Klausling, and Mrs. Amanda Fink.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Klausling and family the past several days were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hagen of Sparta, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Hagen and children Gene, Quentin, and Phyllis of St. Louis, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nitchman of Detroit, Mich.

There will be no August meeting of the W. S. C. S. group of the Methodist church.

Gordon Osmus has finished his schooling at the National Cash Register company school at Dayton, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Osmus and family are enjoying a vacation in Bancroft, Iowa, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fox and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rekau and son

Dale of Steger and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Voelker and children Elaine and Chuckie of Joliet, are guests over the week end of Mr. and Mrs. Len Anderson.

Mrs. B. J. Baskerville of Oak Park has been a house guest of the Ivan Archibald family the past few days.

Miss Mary Lacey accompanied Joliet friends on a two weeks' tour in the east.

Those from New Lenox who will motor to Springfield Saturday to sing with the Illinois Rural Chorus at the Illinois state fair are Mrs. Ivan Archibald, Rosemary Archibald, Mrs. Inez Gougar (accompanist), Mrs. Fern Brown, Mrs. Mildred Berens, Mrs. Walter Hamilton, Ruth Hamilton, Phyllis Palmer, Joan Kern, Alyce Smith, and Mrs. Lenna Koerner. This program will be broadcast Saturday night from 7 to 8 o'clock.

The Frankfort-New Lenox 4-H club held its annual weaner rosette Wednesday night at the Fred Francis farm, and had as their guests members of the Mokena Jolly Troopers, Schmuhl school Pepsters, Cardinals, Bluebirds, and Busy Hour 4-H clubs. After the meeting, games were played and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Edna Cutler gave the secretary's report, and Mrs. Eileen Lerchson gave the treasurer's report. Following the meeting a very interesting key paper demonstration was given by a visitor from Tinley Park. Refreshments were served after the demonstration. The August meeting will be a potluck supper on the lawn at the home of Mrs. Everett Merfeld.

Barbara Sayers enjoyed a stay with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ramsey, at their home in Joliet last week.

The Royal Neighbors will meet for the August meeting at the home of Mrs. Josephine Sayers next Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Laura Carlson and Mrs. Sayers will be hostesses.

Marlene Therese was the name given the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heisler at the christening service held Sunday afternoon at 1:30 at St. Jude's Catholic church. The Rev. Father Reynolds officiated. Sponsors for the baby were her aunt, Miss Rita Demask, and her uncle, Al Heffner of Chicago. Approximately forty relatives and friends gathered on the lawn at the Heisler home after the christening for a buffet supper at 6 o'clock. Dancing was enjoyed later.

Mrs. Barbara Heisler has returned to her home at Chicago after spending several weeks here with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heisler and family.

HOMER

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Ott and family and Mr. and Mrs. George Ott are vacationing near Rhineland, Wisconsin.

Mrs. Harlan Hopkins, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Ingersoll, under went an appendectomy at St. Joseph's hospital Monday morning.

Mrs. Lloyd Reiter, Sr. who is a surgical patient in St. Joseph's, is improving rapidly.

Dinner guests in the F. J. Paddock home Sunday were: Mrs. E. A. Cary and son Maurice, and Mrs. G. L. Reed all of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyndon Perry visited their aunt and cousins, Mrs. John Sproat and family Sunday.

Mrs. Harold Finley and son Robert of Gary, Ind., were visitors in the Willard Rowley home Wednesday.

Mrs. A. C. Logan of Joliet spent the week end with Mrs. Ira Anderson. Other Sunday dinner guests in the Anderson home were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Carlson and sons, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vancil and Jane.

Mrs. Ray Carlson and sons are spending two weeks at Tower Hill camp near Sawyer, Mich. They are accompanied by Mrs. Thomas Carroll and sons of Joliet.

Frank Wilson of Oak Lawn visited his friend Perry Bishop, at the Mrs. John Sproat home Saturday.

Charles White is recovering from a recent severe throat ailment.

Miss Eleanor Kopelman attended a 4-H leadership camp at Bloomington last week. Monday evening she gave a report of the camp's activities at a Kiwanis club dinner in Joliet.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Milne are entertaining their sister and brother-in-law, the Rev. and Mrs. George Crockett of Yates Center, Kansas. Mrs. Crockett is the former Agnes Milne.

Mr. Clarence Ogren of Lockport was the guest speaker at Homer church Sunday morning, in the absence of Rev. Milton Heitzman who was attending a conference at Lake Forest. Monday Mr. Heitzman accompanied a group from the Lockport church to Tower Hill camp. It is expected that he will be here for the 8:30 service next Sunday.

• Does your soil have "dry pockets" where crop-producing manure has not been placed? Correct this with the accurate, even spreading of the McCormick-Deering No. 200-F Tractor Spreader—it carries all the fluid manure onto the fields.

All three McCormick-Deering Spreader models give you full value from your manure with their fine shredding and even flow to the beater.

THE HEATILATOR FIRE-PLACE actually saves and circulates the extra heat that ordinary fireplaces waste up the chimney. It is a hollow steel form around which the masonry is easily laid. Cool air is drawn from floor level, heated and returned to every corner of the room.

The Heatilator Fireplace is a correctly designed steel form around which any style fireplace can be built with greater ease and accuracy. By eliminating usual construction faults, this scientific unit prevents smoking. Surveys show that over half the old-type fireplaces smoke. Build around the Heatilator and be sure of success. Stop in and see the Heatilator, or phone for big folder and prices.

MOKENA

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Martie and family are spending their vacation in New York.

Mrs. Albert Cappel is vacationing with her brother-in-law, Glenn Krusemark in Truman, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fossum and daughter are on a month's vacation with the latter's mother in Wisconsin.

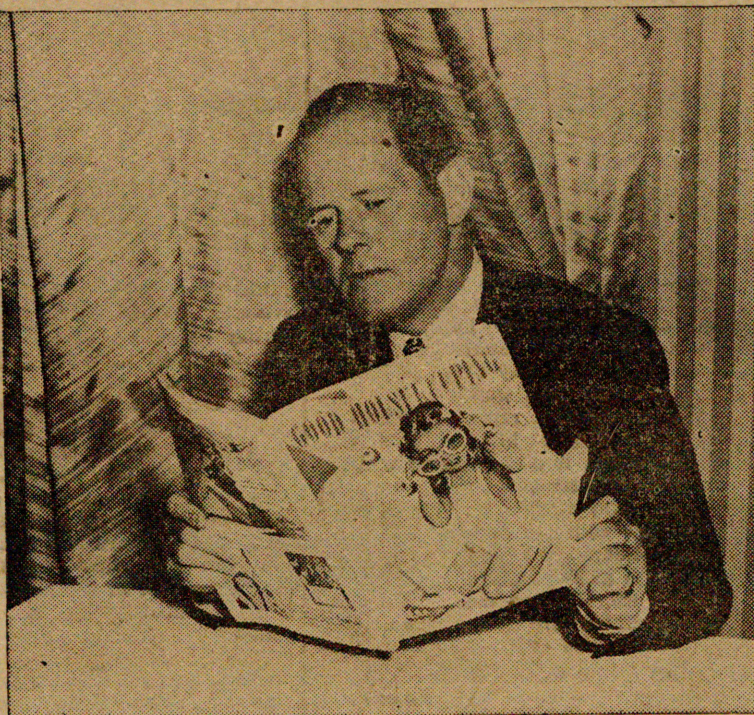

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Howe of Chicago have been visiting for the past two weeks with his son, Irwin Howe and family. The elder Mr. Howe is in very poor health.

Mrs. Margaret Fisher, is visiting with friends in Mokena. Mrs. Fisher, the former Miss Hennessey, was a teacher in the Mokena high school.

Friends of Ann Rutledge school report a most enjoyable evening when they attended the recent "box social" there. A history of the school and vicinity was given the Chicago Tribune reporter and photographer, who were there to cover the event, by Mrs. Hilda Walker, Mrs. Isabel M. Davidson, and Norman Bradley. Prizes went to Mrs. Walter Peterson and Gloria Dixon. A. M. Elphick entertained at the piano. Mrs. Sterling Highley gave selections on the guitar. All joined in singing old familiar songs. The pictures are to appear in the metropolitan section of the Chicago Tribune on either August 10 or 17.

Youngsters Shouldn't Drink
Says Owner of Stork Club

Sherman Billingsley, above, owner of the famous Stork Club, believes it is not smart for teen agers to drink. He declares that young people who drink when they are not supposed to are only displaying their adolescence and immaturity.

"Don't drink because you think you are expected to," he states in an article which he wrote for July Good Housekeeping. "There is nothing particularly adult or sophisticated about drinking—there is something very juvenile and adolescent about drinking when you can't or aren't supposed to."

WANTS HOMES

We have cash buyers waiting for anyone wishing to sell property. Kindly phone our office for one of our special agents to call. We have sold millions of dollars worth of property on the South and Southwest sides. I specialize in suburban homes. I don't fool around, the minute your home is listed with me for sale I get ready to advertise in the Chicago Newspapers and seven salesmen start to work on it. They start calling on clients who have been out to my office and told us just what they would be interested in I send a copy of the paper to each owner where my advertisement appears. In this way you are sure your property has been advertised. A great many times the property is sold before we have a chance to advertise. When a deal is pending we hold off our advertisement a few days as each salesman has many cash buyers to get in touch with immediately. I demand action from my Salesmen and if the house is not sold within a reasonable time it is advertised again and the Salesmen are instructed to double their efforts. If you price your property at a fair price and give it to me for sale I can assure you that you will get quick action.

BIG-CAR QUALITY AT LOWEST COST

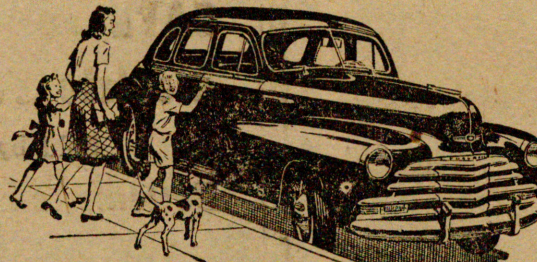

World's Champion
Valve-in-Head
Design!

The new Chevrolet is the lowest-priced motor car with a Valve-in-Head Engine—the type of car engine which holds all records for efficiency—for giving maximum power from every ounce of fuel. Moreover, Chevrolet's Valve-in-Head Engine is the "champion of champions" on all these counts: (1) Valve-in-Head performance at lowest prices; (2) billions of miles of service to owners; and (3) number of owners served. In fact, this sturdy Chevrolet Valve-in-Head Engine has delivered more miles, for more owners, over a longer period, than any other automotive engine built today, regardless of type, size or price!

Chevrolet gives you the BIG-CAR styling of Body by Fisher—exclusive to Chevrolet in the lowest-price range. Chevrolet also brings you the safety of Fisher Unisteel body construction, the Knee-Action Ride and Positive-Action Hydraulic Brakes—a combination of safety factors found only in Chevrolet and higher-priced cars.

You can't match Chevrolet's BIG-CAR COMFORT at lowest cost, either—the outstanding comfort of its Knee-Action Gliding Ride—for this, too, is exclusive to Chevrolet in its price range.

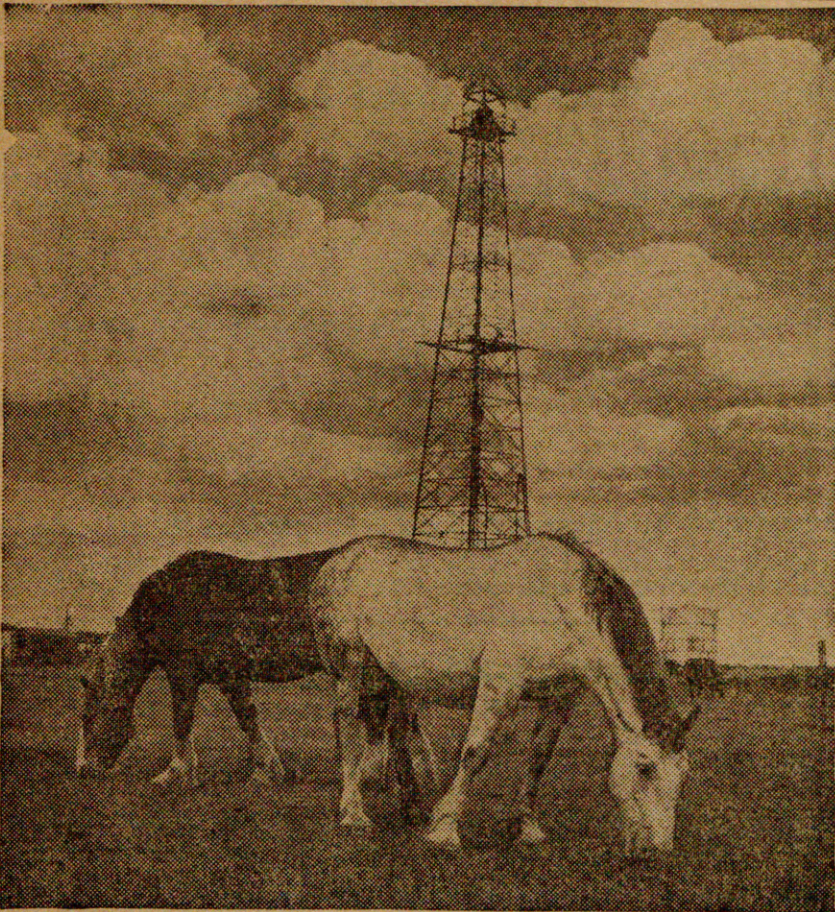

Be wise! Keep your present car in good running condition by bringing it to us for skilled service, now and at regular intervals, until you secure delivery of your new Chevrolet. Come in—today!

OIL AND HORSEPOWER . . . It is a sure indication that progress is under way across the land when old ways and new ways exist side by side for a time in the same bailiwick. At Leduc, Alberta, Canada, these days horses are grazing in the skeleton shadows of oil derricks because what was once an important agricultural area recently has come to be an even more vital source of petroleum. Ten oil companies already have launched major operations near Leduc and five wells have been brought in. First oil strike in the region was made in February.

EISLERS AT COURT . . . Gerhardt Eisler, described as the No. 1 Communist in the United States, and his wife leave U. S. district court in Washington, D. C., where Eisler is being tried on passport fraud charges. The government is scheduled to present further evidence that Eisler made several trips to this country to whip the American Communist party into the Moscow line. Eisler previously heard an admitted former Communist testify that every American Communist is an agent of the Communist Internationale.

LABEL FOR GIFTS TO GREECE . . . Rep. Leo E. Allen (Rep., Ill.) and John Baer, cartoonist and former congressman from North Dakota, display the emblem submitted by Baer for house approval in connection with a bill introduced by Allen for the labeling of all goods donated by the U. S. to the relief of war-torn countries. The measure would provide that indelible markings on all such gifts tell their origin, destination and unsalability.

STACKS OF MONEY—ALL BAD . . . Deputy United States Marshal Doris Brown embraces the mountain of bogus $10 bills found on highway south of St. George, Utah, and brought to Los Angeles by secret service agents. The pile of counterfeit bills was estimated to represent about $150,000 at face value.

RECORD RAIN FLOODS ERIE . . . Small boats were brought into service at Erie, Pa., when a record nine and one-half inches of rain fell in eight hours. Two feet of water deluged city at height of the flood, as more than 20 families were evacuated from low-lying areas. It was estimated that damages caused by the flood would be about a million dollars. Light and telephone service was disrupted in some parts of the city, but power, gas and water supplies continued to operate.

NEIGHBORHOOD TURNS OUT FOR ROCKY . . . In the Seventh street-Second avenue area of New York, Rocky Graziano is the local boy who made good by winning the middleweight championship of the world from Tony Zale, even if the New York boxing commission doesn't admit it. Battered but happy, the Rock received a hero's homecoming from the neighbors who knew him when. Graziano, who belted Zale for a technical knockout in the sixth round of their title bout in Chicago, offered to give Zale a rematch within 90 days.

LONG AND THE SHORT . . . Bellhop Raymond Karns (5 ft. 1 in.) looks to be strictly out of his class in the company of these towering cuties, all six feet tall. They are among the members of 15 social clubs from cities all over the country organized exclusively for males at least six feet four inches tall and girls who extend at least six feet into the air. Attending a convention at Los Angeles, they discussed problems of short beds, clothes, chandeliers, low ceilings and making friends.

MARINES ON THE AIR . . . One of the services offered by the United States marines based in Tsingtao, China, is a full schedule of radio entertainment broadcast from the marine corps operated station XABU. The station is an enterprise of the Armed Forces Radio service, whose mission is to provide entertainment, education and information for U. S. armed forces abroad.

BRAW, BRIGHT LADDIE . . . William Leslie Slorach of Glasgow, Scotland, pushed his sunglasses down on his nose, the better to see the sights of New York, as he arrived aboard the S.S. Ernie Pyle. He's wearing kilts and his heart is probably in the highlands. He is on his way to Ontario, Canada, to live with a sister.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.

Symptoms may be nagging headache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength.

Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

THE FICTION CORNER

KEEPERS FINDER
By CHARLES PALMER

The chauffeur pulled the long black car over to the side of the dusty road, and the elderly gentleman in the tonneau leaned forward to open the door for the two hitchhikers. The slim, nervous one with the beady black eyes sat on one side of the elderly gentleman; the large, sleepy one on the other.

The elderly gentleman's hands were folded benignly in his lap. His friendly, rather vague eyes peered at first one, then the other. He broke the silence. "My name is Vandermeer, gentlemen. And you?"

The slim, nervous one sat up sharply. "Any relation to the Vandermeer bank family?"

"Yes," said the elderly gentleman, stroking his gray goatee. "I have that honor, if you call it one."

"Then," said the slim one, "this is your lucky day. Ain't it, George?" The big one took his hungry gaze from the passing orange trees long enough to grunt agreement, and turned back to contemplating the luscious fruit.

The slim one fixed the elderly gentleman with a gimlet eye, and hooked a taut finger confidently in his lapel.

"Have you ever neglected the birthday of a loved one, and spent sleepless nights of regret?" he probed intensely. "Have you ever slipped up on remembering an anniversary and gone to the doghouse as a result—or failed to congratulate a friend on a promotion and gotten the fishy eye the next time you met? Have you?"

"Well, yes," apologized the elderly gentleman. "I have. I am a trifle forgetful at times," adding defensively, "but then, most people are."

"Ah," pressed the slim one, giving the lapel an impressive shake, "my point exactly. Most people are, like you, forgetful, and they suffer for it. They suffer because they know the slight or omission was not intended and realize too, that the neglected one is certain to wrongly interpret it. Maybe a long friendship will be strained, or a wife or daughter hurt."

"But, suppose you were to suddenly find yourself in a position where those slights and omissions never happened any more! Wouldn't you be delighted—especially if it meant no effort on your part, no strain, no time, in fact, nothing beyond the payment of a very small fee?"

The elderly gentleman nodded. "I imagine most people would be as delighted as I."

"My point again!" cried the slim one. "Now, George and I are at this moment on our way to Los Angeles to initiate just such a service. We plan to call it The Tell-You-When Co., Inc."

"All you have to do is give us the names of the people whose anniversaries you want to remember; with the dates if you have them, otherwise we will look them up for you."

"Give us too, the names of people whose promotions, marriages, births, deaths and so on you want to mark with a gift or note; and our clipping service will watch the papers and other sources of information. When an item pops up on the calendar we keep in your name, we notify you—and for a small additional fee we will even write an appropriate note, or purchase and forward a gift. Now, tell me: Does that fill a long-felt need?"

The elderly gentleman's eyes were you estimate your venture will require?"

The slim one inspected him with covert calculation. "Well, there's advertising—office rent, telephones and help—livings for George and me—all only until the golden flood begins to roll in. Say; oh say, five thousand dollars. That should be sufficient to launch the business."

The elderly gentleman drew a checkbook from his pocket, and unlimbered his fountain pen. The beady eyes glistened. The elderly gentleman turned to the back of a check and began to figure. The slim one exhaled sharply, opened his mouth to speak, but thought better of it.

In a few moments, the elderly gentleman stopped figuring, and looked out the car window, stroking his goatee reflectively. He shook his head slowly.

"No," he said. "I believe your calculations to be in error. You will need at least ten thousand dollars to get your proposition under way."

The blood slowly flowed back into the slim one's cheeks. Mr. Vander-

"Okay," he said, "I bit." Then he kissed the check regretfully and tore it up.

bright with interest. "Amazing, young man! Exactly what I need. Put me down as your first subscriber."

"You see!" said the slim one. "You snapped at it. So will others. Which brings us to the heart of the matter, doesn't it, George?" George turned from the oranges long enough to grunt a second agreement, and turned back to his contemplation. An orange would go very, very good just now. The slim one grasped the elderly gentleman's lapel again.

"Mr. Vandermeer, I called this your lucky day. It is. You, being a Vandermeer, have money which you are probably willing to treble on a proposition that can't miss. George and I have such a proposition, but no money. Now, why can't we get together on this thing?"

"Hm," remarked the elderly gentleman. "How much capital do moor turned his checkbook over and poised his pen.

"I am a man of quick decisions," he told the slim one. "I am convinced of the worth of your idea, and of your ability to carry it through. Your name?" The slim one supplied it, and the elderly gentleman wrote out the check, tore it from the book, and handed it to him.

"And now, I see we are almost home. If you young men will come in with me, we can draw up some informal papers to cover the matter, and then I will have my driver take you on to the city to start your company."

The car swung from the highway and stopped smoothly. A uniformed attendant hobbled from the gate house to unlock the ponderous iron grilles which effectively barred the driveway.

Suddenly the slim one bent forward. His eyes rested on a small bronze plate set in the stone pillar. "Sunnyside Home for the Mentally Diseased," he read slowly, choking as the words sunk in. He turned toward George, flicking a rather hopeless glance in his direction. George turned away sadly—to again appraise the oranges. The slim one's eyes dropped to the flourishing signature on the check he still held in his hands. "Napoleon Vandermeer," he quoted.

His lips tightened murderously for a moment, then he grinned sheepishly.

"Okay, Napoleon," he said. "I bit. Your name ain't Vandermeer, but just to even it up, George and me ain't starting any Tell-You-When Service, either! Because somebody else beat us to it a year ago, see, and all we wanted your dough for was to skip the country before the dicks caught up to us." He kissed the check regretfully, then tore it into little pieces and tossed them in the air, watching them flutter down.

"Come on, George," he said, "oranges for breakfast."

"The elderly gentleman watched them trudge down the road, and stroked his goatee contemptuously as the car rolled up the drive. It stopped in front of a brick building with barred windows, and he stood beside the car for a moment.

"Harvey," he said to the waiting driver, "wait here for me. I'll be only a moment."

The chauffeur touched his cap respectfully.

"Yes, Doctor Vandermeer," he said.

Early Day Painting

In the days when paint recipes were kept in the family cook book, our colonial ancestors knew about making paint out of skimmed milk, which is basically the same idea as the modern casein paint of today which has a milk base. Colonial dames mixed skimmed milk with salt, boiled rice, coffee and egg-white when they wanted a batch of paint for freshening up their houses. And a painted house was a matter of social prestige. It was considered presumptuous for a tradesman to paint his dwelling. Gradually, though, as the idea of equality penetrated, the butcher and the baker and the candlestick maker decided they had as much right to paint their houses as the doctor, lawyer and ship owner.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Purity of Heart and Life

LESSON TEXT FOR AUGUST 10—Proverbs 2:1-5, 10-17; 4:14-27; 5:1-4; 31:10-12; James 1:13-15.

MEMORY SELECTION—Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.—Proverbs 4:23.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

By WILLIAM CULBERTSON, D. D., Of The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

IT is well for us to face squarely such a topic as the one assigned. It is particularly necessary to review the biblical standards with regard to holiness of life, since the day in which we live is one of lowered conceptions.

You will probably remember the story of the celebrated artist who was renowned because of his ability to put on canvas colors of accurate hue and great beauty. His secret was that he kept a number of valuable gems of all colors. He would turn frequently from his painting to study the color of these gems.

We need to spend time with the precious gems of the Word of God that we may clearly understand how he would have us live.

I. True Wisdom Involves the Fear of Jehovah (Prov. 2:1-5).

IN THE opening chapters of Proverbs, Wisdom is personified. Anyone who believes in Jesus Christ cannot help understanding something of his relationship to wisdom. In him "are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge" (Col. 2:3). To those of us who trust him, he has been made unto us wisdom (I Cor. 1:30).

In this passage in Proverbs the point is that if we observe his commandments, if we incline our ears unto wisdom, if we apply our hearts to understanding, if we long for discernment, as earnestly as we would seek for silver and hidden treasures, we shall understand the fear of the Lord and find the knowledge of God.

God will meet every individual who really wants to know him. Said our Lord, "If any man will to do his will, he shall know . . ." (John 7:17).

II. True Wisdom Involves Holiness of Life (Prov. 2:10-17; 4:14-17; 5:1-4).

TO truly know God is, of course, to be spared the heartache which results from being deceived by sin and Satan. When wisdom enters the heart, the result is discretion and understanding (Prov. 2:10, 11). Thus God delivers us from the way of evil and from men that speak evil things (v. 12).

Attention should be given to the description of these evil men in verses 12-15: they speak perverse things; they forsake the paths of uprightness; they walk in the way of darkness; they rejoice to do evil; they delight in the perverseness of evil; their paths are crooked and wayward.

Deliverance from the strange woman is likewise vouchsafed, as we have true wisdom. The description of these women is informative—flattering, forgetful of both friends and God; their lips drop honey, their mouths are smoother than oil.

Notice the conclusion of the matter: In the end they are bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword, their feet go down to death, and their steps take hold on Sheol.

How much we need God's wisdom in this world. It is easy to be deceived.

III. True Wisdom Means Peace at the End (Prov. 4:18-27).

TO walk with God, to walk in wisdom, is indeed as the dawning light, shining more and more unto the perfect day. If there were no other reward for living for God (and there are many, many others), the benediction at eventide would be enough to cause us to think seriously before we flout the ways of God.

IV. A Representative of True Wisdom (Prov. 31:10-12).

THIS passage describes the wise woman. She is indeed to be extolled. The worthy woman, the woman who loves God, the woman who is therefore wise, is in price far above rubies.

V. Sin's History (James 1:13-15).

THE wise man, the man who will be pure in heart and life, ought to understand something of the history of sin in his individual life. Temptation here refers undoubtedly to a solicitation to evil. God does make trial of men (Gen. 22:1), but he does not dangle before them that which is evil in itself.

The history of personal evil is, that because of our lust we are enticed. Thus when lust has conceived (that is to say, we have succumbed to the enticement), sin is born, and sin, when it is finished—but it is never finished; it goes on and on; no power on earth can arrest it—bringeth forth death.

WITH the Boston Braves of 1947 making threatening pennant gestures for the first time since 1914, a somewhat inside story of the old Stallings outfit might be worth telling.

In 1914, the Braves, under the fiery Miracle Man, George Stallings, were 15 games off the pace, as late as July 4, and they were still last on July 18. Then the miracle of baseball's miracles took place, as they went on to win the pennant and beat the Athletics 4 straight.

But part of the story of the Braves of 1914 goes back to the spring-training program of that year in the South—to a pair of great competitors, possibly the greatest that ever wore spiked shoes. Their names were Maranville and Evers, the Rabbit and the Crab.

Heading north that year, I stopped off for a few days at the Braves camp in March. The main idea was to call on a few old friends, such as Hank Gowdy, Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville. Intending to spend only a day or so, I hung around longer, for it was the most interesting camp I had run across.

In an exhibition game that afternoon, Evers and Maranville collided at second base, each trying to cover the bag. Both seemed to be badly jolted, but neither gave any sign of being hurt.

I noticed Maranville, a few minutes later, looking for some lost object around second base.

"What were you looking for?" I asked the Rabbit in the dugout later. "Two of my teeth," he said, "where my mouth collided with Johnny's head. He's got a tough head."

A short while later, Evers was hit on the arm with a fast ball. He gave no sign of being hurt, as he grinned and started for first base.

They Could Take It

Another member of the Braves was hit, and he also showed no sign of any trouble, although he carried a lump above his elbow.

Here, outside of the genial Hank Gowdy, was a rather snarling, tough group, without too much ability.

The team had Dick Rudolph, George Tyler and Bill James pitching, but they had never looked like Johnson, Alexander and Mathewson, or Feller, Newhouse, Shea and Blackwell.

As far as one could see here was a ball club that might finish sixth or seventh—or even eighth. The squad, that week, had shown no power at all. Only some pretty fair pitching.

That night, Maranville told me what was taking place.

"I lost two teeth," he said, "and I never blinked. Two men were hit, and they never rubbed their arms. We've made a rule on this club that nobody can show he has been hurt, not even if he gets a concussion, not even if he gets his block knocked off. Don't think losing two teeth was any fun. It hurt. But I never let anyone know it. I like that brand of baseball. Don't ever let 'em know you've been hurt."

The Victory Drive

I lost considerable interest in this Maranville philosophy when the Braves were last on July 4, 15 games away from the first place.

"What about it now?" I said to the Rabbit, about that time.

"Just warming up," he said. "Just warming up. Watch us in the stretch."

It was from late July on that the Braves, headed by the driving force of George Stallings, a great manager, a fighter from every known angle, plus Rudolph, Tyler and James, went to work.

Stallings told me later he lost four pairs of trousers sliding up and down the bench. "I was full of bench splinters," he said.

Dick Rudolph was one of the best, and one of the smartest pitchers in baseball history. Tyler and James came to his help. Day after day you got this refrain—"Rudolph, Tyler and James."

They caught the Giants in the stretch, picked up 15 games on one of McGraw's good teams, and then wrecked the Athletics in four straight in the world series.

And all the Athletics had was Bender and Plank and Bush, Collins, McInnis, Baker, Barry and what looked to be one of the great teams of all time—a team that had won four pennants in five years. It wasn't even a contest.

Southworth's Team

Now the Braves of 1947, just 33 years later, under the able direction of Billy Southworth, another great manager, are among the teams to beat. These Braves are a much better ball club than the Braves of 1914. But, whether or not they can show the same amount of iron in their systems as this miracle squad offered against a forlorn hope, is another guess.

It isn't often that any team has a Maranville and an Evers on the same squad, two blazing spots of flame.

Rotary Expands
Since the end of the war, Rotary clubs have been re-established in 16 countries. Clubs of the international service group have been reorganized in Belgium, Burma, China, Czechoslovakia, France, Greece, Hong Kong, Luxembourg, Italy, Malaya, Norway, Siam, the Marianas, the Netherlands, the Netherlands Indies and the Philippines.

Allied Sports
Twenty-five competitive sports have been participated in by army personnel in the European occupation zone as part of the broad athletic program sponsored by army special services. The project also has included international competition in 14 different sports.

Devil Ray Tows Boat
When a giant black-striped devil ray became entangled in the anchor ropes of a 16-foot motor boat inside the Great Barrier reef, near Innisfail, Queensland, it towed the boat a mile out to sea. The ray was estimated at about seven feet long, weighing nearly a ton.

Cock and Bull
The expression of "cock and bull story" originated from two famous English coaching inns called the Cock and the Bull, at Fenny Stratford in Buckinghamshire. So many false tales and rumors came from there, hence the expression.

Alarming Number Of Accidents On Farms In Illinois

Illinois farm people are still being seriously injured or killed in farm and home accidents according to reports gathered by W. W. Whitlock, director, department of safety and public health, Illinois Agricultural association.

Haying accidents have been heavy in recent weeks. High-speed cutting machinery, runaways, pitchforks, and pulleys contribute to this. A recent serious injury resulted to a Franklin county farmer when he fell from a load of hay after his horses became frightened. A Lee county farmer died in a fall from a hay mow. A Greenville man died in a wagon fall.

We have heard repeated warnings about reviving a kitchen fire with kerosene, but it still happens with fatal results. Just two weeks ago, an Illinois farm woman burned to death from this cause, and an Effingham farm woman was seriously burned lighting a gasoline stove.

Then some of the most serious and heartbreaking are the accidents happening to farm children. Just recently a four-year-old Ipava child barely escaped death when attacked by hogs in a hog lot. A two-year-old Breese child had his fingers cut off in a lawn mower. A child in Villa Grove fell from a box. A five-year-old Savannah girl dislocated a hip in a corn crib fall, while a seven-year-old Hinckley boy fell from the top of a silo.

A 12-year-old Teutopolis farm boy was killed in a tractor upset, and a Princeton woman was severely cut by a disc when she dived off a tractor to rescue her three-year-old daughter who ran into the path of the tractor.

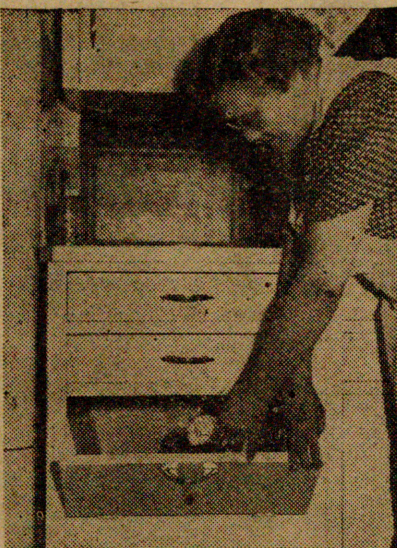

Speaking of tractor accidents, they are on the increase this time of year, too.

Overturning, driving at high speeds too close to gulleys and ravines are found to be the chief causes. Recently a Freeport man had a leg crushed under a tractor. An Elkhart man was pinned under his tractor for two hours before help came. A Windsor man fell off a tractor in turning a corner, and a Penfield man broke an ankle in a fall from a tractor.

All these tractor casualties aren't from overturning. Some people still crank them with occasional dire results as evidenced by a Princeton man who broke his arm while cranking.

Retires After 34 Years With Company

Wendelin R. Lenz, formerly of 160th street and Latrobe avenue, Oak Forest, veteran of nearly 34 years of service with Commonwealth Edison company, retired on a pension August 1. He started his Edison career in 1913 as an apprentice substation operator and worked his way up through the ranks of senior operator. He is 60 years old.

Before entering the utility's employ, Mr. Lenz served a four-year "hitch" in the United States marine corps. A gunnery sergeant, he spent two years overseas patrolling the Asiatic coast during the Boxer rebellion. He was also stationed in the Philippines for two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Lenz have two sons, two daughters, and two grandchildren. Both boys were in the armed forces during World War II, one, Raymond, also an Edison employee, is still in the army medical corps. A staff sergeant, he spent two years in Germany during the war. The other son, Howard, a first lieutenant in the army air forces, was a bombardier in the European theatre of operations.

The Lenzes are now full-time occupants of their 47-acre "country estate" at North Liberty, Ind.

TINLEY PARKCARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to our neighbors and friends and the Fire Departments for coming so quickly to help save the house and other buildings while the barn, which was struck by lightning, was burning. MR. and MRS. AUGUST H. WILLE AND FAMILY

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends and relatives who came to our aid Saturday morning during the fire on our farm. Our thanks also to the fire departments of both Tinley Park and Oak Forest who came so quickly when we called. The barn was burned but our home and other buildings were saved. MR. and MRS. GEORGE KOLLMAN MR. and MRS. HOWARD BETTENHAUSEN

P. S. Co. Promotes Harold S. Patton

Harold S. Patton has been elected a vice-president of the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois effective August 1, it was announced this week by Charles Y. Freeman, chairman of the board. He succeeds the late William J. MacPherson who died June 23.

Mr. Patton, a resident of Evanston, became associated with the utility in 1915, when he began work as a substation operator. He later served as power supervisor, assistant electrical engineer, and manager of division operating.

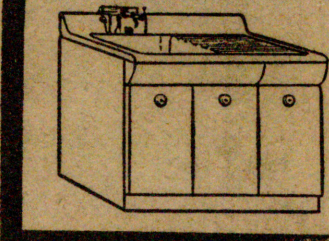

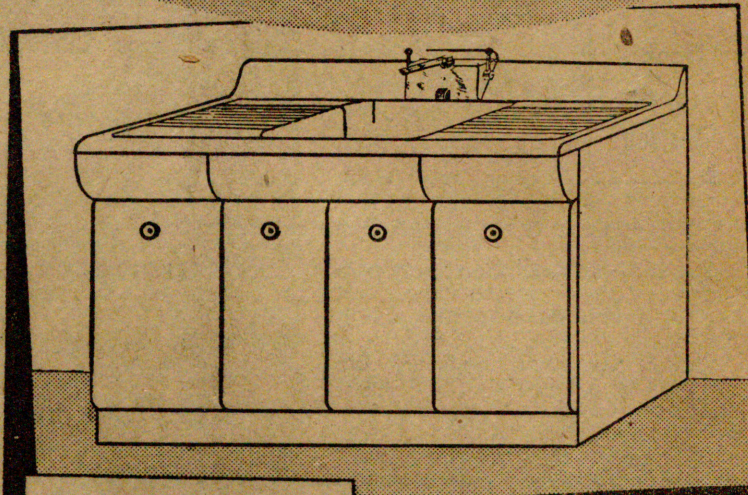

Four years ago he entered the industrial relations department, and for the past two years has been manager of industrial relations for the company.

He is a graduate of Purdue University and a member of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

PowerAire
AIR POWER PAINTER

Makes it possible to paint with air power—taking power from your tractor, truck or car motor (see picture at right)

You've seen PowerAire advertised in all of the national farm papers. Now we have it for you.
We have just been appointed exclusive headquarters for this trade area.

Beat high painting costs

With PowerAire equipment, a farmer can paint his house, barn and buildings in approximately three days—can save labor and do a better job with less paint. Many farmers save far more than the total cost of PowerAire equipment on their first paint job, and have air power available for dozens of other farm jobs.

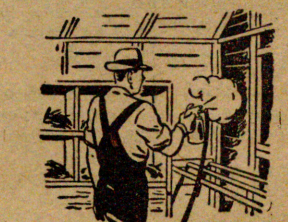

WE INVITE YOU to come in and see PowerAire, and the line of paints and supplies which we have—investigate its possibilities for saving time and money for you.
